Will you help build God's house?

The opportunity to help build a church is a unique chance for a blessing.

Right now, our parish has the opportunity to purchase a property that is ideally suited to Orthodox Christian mission work in the Hamilton area:

- A solid structure with new windows
- Located one minute of the Red Hill Expressway, on bus routes
- Ample parking in a residential area

- Large main floor and basement, with a total of over 3500 square feet
- $200,000 confirmed price for church
- Approx. $75,000 for renovations*
- Total cost of church: $274,000

Never before have we here had an opportunity like this to raise up an Orthodox parish dedicated to mission work. But we have only until January 2009 to raise the needed funds. That is the date we must begin the renovations on the building required by city bylaws.

If we do – a church is born!

If you can help respond to the call to build an English-language Orthodox mission church in Hamilton, please send cheques to:
